With more and more Chinese people traveling abroad, their bad behaviors have become a hot topic. A recent US survey showed Chinese were the second worst tourists. How can we be a good tourist? Here are some tips for you.

First, we should keep our voice down while talking with friends in public places. Please wait in line if you want to take a bus or have dinner. Also, don't spit or drop litter whenever you want. Finally, it's really a bad behavior to write or draw pictures on famous buildings.

As a middle school student, I think we should pay attention to our behavior, saying no to those bad habits. While enjoying ourselves, we should not only respect local customs, but also take care of the environment.

My mother often tells me, "If we spread love by helping others, we will be surrounded by love, too.” I think it has a point.

A reporter once asked a farmer why he could always win the first prize about growing corn. The answer made people surprised—The farmer shared his seed corn with his neighbors so that his own corn would grow well with the help of bees and wind. The story showed if we lighted a lamp for others, it would also brighten our path.

Helping people is like watering a shoot of flower, which takes your time and effort, but as it grows up, the fragrance will give you happiness, too.

The development of Internet makes a difference to students' daily schoolwork. Some students prefer to search answers when they have trouble doing homework. There are different opinions about it.

Some students like it very much. They think it is easy and convenient to ask for help online whenever they don't know the answers to the problems. It can give them some ideas which can help them work out the problems. What's more, it saves much time to do homework.

However, other students disagree with it. First, they think homework becomes meaningless if they simply copy the answers. Besides, some students will depend on the Internet a lot so that they will form bad learning habits. What's worse, they won't learn to think problems on their own. As a result, their learning abilities won't be improved.

I think students should first think over questions by ourselves. If we can use the Internet in the right way, it could be a good way to help our study.

参考范文

Dear Amy,

You must be excited about coming to China soon. However, different countries have different customs. Now, let me give you some suggestions and advice about Chinese customs.

When it comes to table manners, what comes first is that you shouldn't start eating first if there are the elderly at the table. In addition, it's impolite to stick chopsticks into the rice or point at others with your chopsticks. As it is in many countries, you are not supposed to talk with your mouth full.

As for house rules, it is important for you to knock before entering. Besides, you'd better keep quiet while someone is sleeping. Waking others up is always impolite. One more thing, if you want to drop by one of your friends, it's better to bring a small gift.

Being on time is quite necessary when you go out with Chinese friends. Don't keep others waiting and never talk rudely when they are a bit late. Remember to make some plans before you ask your friends out so that they won't be bored.

As the saying goes, "When in Rome, do as Romans do" I hope you will enjoy your staying here.

Best wishes,

Li Ming

My Friend

Ann is my good friend. She is tall and thin with long straight hair. She loves to tell jokes. She makes me happy when we get together after school.

We are in different classes but in the same school. One day I overslept so I had to rush to the bus station. While I was waiting for the bus, a car stopped in front of me. A girl told me she was my schoolmate and her father could give me a ride. Thanks to Ann and her father, I wasn't late. Since then we became good friends and we often shared everything. I like to have a good friend who has the same interest as me, like Ann.

I think in ten years, we'll be good friends, too. Ann is my good friend forever.

With the development of the Internet, many people are used to shopping online. It has become a fashion in our daily life. Some of us students also join the group. Shopping online has many advantages. Just by a click of the mouse, you can buy what you're interested in without going outdoors. You can avoid getting tired and being trapped in the crowded people and cars and save time. When shopping online, you can choose from more varieties of goods, whose prices are generally lower.

Every coin has two sides. Its disadvantages are obvious, too. On the one hand, it's very easy for you to buy goods different from the pictures you see on the Internet. On the other hand, shopping online may cause people to buy goods that are not badly needed. That's a waste of money.

All in all, I love shopping online.

Life is full of worries or troubles. Nevertheless, as long as we try to face them bravely and wisely, they may make us grow up.

Last Friday, my mother made me dumplings for breakfast. However, so salty were the dumplings that I became annoyed. I shouted at my mother and put down the chopsticks angrily. After school, my father picked me up and told me that my mother got up really early to make me dumplings. I said nothing but I felt regretful to shout at my mother. As soon as I got home, I hugged her and said sorry to her.

No one likes worries or troubles. But it is worries or troubles that bring family members and friends closer together. So don't be afraid of them anymore.

Hope to see you soon in Changchun.
